

Monday, January 26, 2009
Eating Disorders

08:15-09:00	Registration
09:00-09:30	Greetings; Highlights of Today's Program Daniel Stein Rehabilitation House for Recovering Young Women with Eating Disorders Yael Latzer
09:30-11:00	Plenary Lectures
09:30	Binge Eating Disorder: The Current State of the Art in Relation to Diagnosis, Outcome and Treatment Michael Devlin
10:00	Night Eating Syndrome: Diagnosis, Treatment and Research Allan Geliebter
10:30	Adherence to the Superwoman Ideal Mediates the Influence of Religious Orientation on Body Image and Eating Disturbance among Jewish Women Sarah Weinberger
11:00-11:30	Coffee Break; Poster Presentations
11:30-13:00	Free Papers
	Session I Etrog ED: Family and Culture I (English)	Session II Shaked 2 ED: Specific Aspects (Hebrew)	Session III Shaked 3 ED: Family and Culture II (Hebrew)
11:30	Nothing Gained: Retrospective Feeding Practices and Current BMI	Psycho-social Profile of Addiction: Unique to Drugs, or also Common to Pathological Gambling and Binge Eating Disorder?	Not Without my daughter: The Family's Role in the Recovery from Anorexia Nervosa
11:45	"Who Ate my Porridge?" - A Glimpse to the Mother - Infant Bond through the Feeding Scene	Can Narcissism Protect the Anorectic Individual from Suicide? Can Narcissism Protect the Anorectic Individual from Suicide?	Together or Separately? Anorexia Nervosa in Identical Twins - A Case Report
12:00	Association of Breastfeeding with Disordered Weight Control Behaviors in Adolescents	The Prevalence of Vicarious Learning in the Processes of Development and Recovery from Eating Disorders	A Structured, Short-term Group Approach to Enhance Parents' Insight into Illness and Coping Skills within an Eating Disorders Inpatient Unit
12:15	Family-Based Program Focused on Parents in Outpatient Eating Disorders Care	Eating Habits, Sleep Patterns and Electronic Media Exposure among Adolescents	Pro-Anorexia: A Cult of Starvation on the Internet
12:30	Therapeutic Implications of the Relationship between Child Sexual Abuse and Eating Disorders: The Need for Developing Appropriate Treatment	"Starving the Dark Material in My Stomach": Anorexia Nervosa as a Coping Mechanism with Trauma	Mothers with Eating Disorders and their Children: 2nd and 3rd Generation
12:45	Waiting List Group for Eating Disorders - from 'Visitor' to Patient	Beauty and the Beast in the Same Body: Eating Disorders in the Cinema	Mind-Body Skills Group for the Treatment and Prevention of Eating Disorders
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00-15:45	Parallel Workshops
	Workshop 1 Shaked 2 (Hebrew) Dialectical Behavioral Therapy for Eating Disorders Itsick Vorgaft	Workshop 2 Shaked 3 Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) for Binge Eating Disorder (BED) Michael Devlin	Workshop 3 Etrog Biological Influences on Human Food Intake: Focusing on the Stomach Allan Geliebter

Tuesday, January 27, 2009
Overweight and Obesity

08:15-09:00	Registration
09:00-09:30	Greetings; Highlights of Today's Program Yael Latzer
09:30-11:00	Plenary Lectures
09:30	Parent-Child Relationship in Families with Overweight Children and Adolescents Marilyn Stern
10:00	Globalization of Obesity: Lifestyle and Public Health Solutions Judith Wylie-Rosett
10:30	Enhancing Motivation towards Behavioral Change in Obesity: From Theory to Practice Sylvie Naar-King
11:00-11:30	Coffee Break; Poster Session
11:30-13:00	Free Papers
	Session IV Shaked 2 ED: Physical and Developmental Aspects (Hebrew)	Session V Etrog ED: Cognitive Aspects (English)	Session VI Shaked 3 Obesity: Treatment Programs (Hebrew)
11:30	Multidisciplinary Intervention in Adolescents with Type 1 Diabetes and Eating Disorders	Sisters of Women with Eating Disorders: Neuro-cognition and Personality	Treatment Continuum Appears as a Crucial Factor in Facilitating Weight Maintenance in Morbidly Obese Adolescents
11:45	Long Term Insulin Pump Treatment in Girls with Type 1 Diabetes and Eating Disorders	Muscle Dysmorphia: Reverse Anorexia?	Medical Psychology and Bariatric Surgery: The Health Action Process Model of Work with Obese Patients following Bariatric Surgery
12:00	Growth Characteristics and Final Height in Female Adolescents Diagnosed with Anorexia Nervosa	Cognitive Characteristics of Patients with Anorexia Nervosa	Population-based Trends in Male Adolescent Obesity in Israel 1967- 2003
12:15	Physical Activity as Part of Multidisciplinary Treatment, for BED, Bulimia Nervosa and Morbid Obesity	The Cognitive Orientation of Bulimia Nervosa	A Way toward a Change - without Bypass and Shortcuts
12:30	Sport Counseling in an Outpatient Clinic for Eating Disorders	Group Cognitive Behavioral Therapy in Adolescent Females Hospitalized because of Eating Disorders	Internal Maternal Representations, Differentiation between the Self and the Object and its Contribution to the Emotional Functioning Among Adolescent Girls with Obesity
12:45	Disturbances in Executive Functions: A Common Pathway between Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) and Eating Disorders	Weight Gain from Atypical Antipsychotic Medication in Children and Adolescents	Overweight Children - Multidisciplinary Clinic
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00-15:45	Parallel Workshops
	Workshop 1 Shaked 2 Parents-Focused Treatment of Overweight Children Marilyn Stern	Workshop 2 Etrog Weight Management Programs for Obese Patients: The Current State of the Art Judith Wylie-Rosett	Workshop 3 Shaked 3 Enhancing Motivation towards Behavioral Change in Obesity: Clinical Implications Sylvie Naar-King
16:00-17:30	Israel Association of Treatment Research and Prevention of Eating Disorders Annual Meeting		